Lyrics:

A brass band is playing
 Rehearsing its thrills
 All half-moon and cloudy,
 All golden and shrill

I've got a sleep that burns
 A sleep that burns
 Got a sleep that burns all night

I'm locked in your dark world
 Where hearts hold the keys,
 Half-opened, enchanted, half-truth and half dreams...

I've got a sleep that burns
 A sleep that burns
 Got a sleep that burns all night

I'm sitting in a cafe in paradise
 Naked as a razor, I'm loaded as a dice...
 The waitresses all ask me for my price

I laugh and say I'm leaving
 And this is only dreaming
 So hold me while I'm screaming...

Now...! Is the moment of truth...
 Your youth is a mask but it's not made to last
 For we all have a past to outrun
 When the mask comes undone
 And we race on and on
 Through the fiery portals of hell...!

Go and tell all your friends
 That you've witnessed the end
 Of the world in a dream...

The night winds are howling...
 Seducing the trees,
 I wake in a cold sweat
 With the sheets round my knees

I've got a sleep that burns
A sleep that burns
Got a sleep that burns all night

I lay in the darkness
With visionless eyes...
Exhausted and reeling...
All heartbeats and sighs...

But the sleep still burns, yes, the sleep still burns
Got a sleep that burns all night

(sleep is coming, don't you worry)
